ANNEXURE- A

AIMS:

1. To empower local women by promoting plant-based entrepreneurship.
2. To connect scientific knowledge and real world community-based application
3. To create economic development and societal upliftment through a sustainable pathway.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To create women-centred start-up for socio-economic development.
2. To enhance scientific knowledge and proper technology for sustainable development.
3. To create opportunities, network and proper platform for women-led green entrepreneurs.

DETAILS OF THE PROGRAM:

The Two-Day national conference on “Empowering women through green entrepreneurship” is an interdisciplinary academic platform to emphasize the role of women in shaping an eco-friendly inclusive society through a sustainable way. This conference will highlight the women-centred sustainable initiatives i.e. Low cost, energy saving and eco-friendly technologies for environmental protection and societal upliftment. This program brings together Scientists, Academicians, researchers, students, entrepreneurs and self-help groups to link the scientific research to real world community-based application i.e. laboratory to land. The conference will cover the science and technology for eco-friendly products, public health, business and economics perspectives as well as socio-cultural dimension of women-led green entrepreneurship development. Through the “Eco-Sokhi” green corner, there is an exhibition of eco-friendly products for empowering self-help group to adopt women-led entrepreneurship for sustainable development and societal upliftment.

The two day programme schedule is attached in ANNEXURE - B
